Synopsis

No one wants to think about the possibility of being permanently incapacitated and unable to communicate his or her health care preferences. With a living will, you can express, while still in good health, your choice of when to discontinue treatment and life support—and who should have the power to make that decision for you. This simple-to-use kit contains detailed, easy-to-follow instructions and ready-to-use forms that will help you create your own living will without incurring costly legal fees, allowing you to enjoy your life today without worrying about the future. 14 FORMS INCLUDED: notice of death with dignity request instructions to custodian revocation of power of attorney resignation of agent affidavit of validity of power of attorney document locator personal information funeral requests statement of wishes notification list insurance/pension data sample living will living will durable power of attorney for health care PLUS: Download free state-specific documents, including state-specific living will and durable power of attorney for health care forms, once you've registered your kit online.
