The Basics Of Winning Baccarat

Synopsis

A great quick read for players who want to learn and play baccarat almost immediately. Ten chapters explain the rules and variations, the terminology, the bank and player positions, the odds and bets allowed, and betting and card counting strategies. Cardoza also explains the different versions of play: American style, mini-baccarat, Chemin de Fer and baccarat banque, as well as the rules for drawing additional cards in each of the variations and the odds involved. Illustrations. 64 pages

Customer Reviews

This book only teaches you the rules and nothing about how to win in baccarat. It deceptively set you up for purchasing the more expensive $20.00 book instead, so why did I need to buy this one.

This book is terrible. A complete waste of money. Luckily I bought it used and didnt pay full price. Nothing in this book to help you win or give you any strategies at all. Skip it.

I took this book to Atlantic City and won big. I think this author knows what he is talking about.

Once more a great book if you want to learn the rules of baccarat but no winning or playing strategy of any kind.
