Customer Reviews

I took a legal terminology class in where this book was required. I mostly took the class because I am trying to get certified as a court interpreter. The book was an outstanding source of information and the reason why I believe I passed my examinations. It contains really good terminology and the exercises are excellent for terminology memorization and retention.

This text was informative and easy to understand. It includes fill-ins, matching, and crossword puzzles at the end of each chapter. This may seem juvenile but it really helped to understand and remember a lot of terms. I have a new respect for attorneys, that's a lot to learn!

I rent it and I received a new book! I received it in two days and when it is time to return it, I recieved a couple of reminders. The book is very practical and every chpater has a practical test with questions, true & false and a crossword puzzle. I learned a lot and I got an A

Using this book for an online course. Poorly edited, many mistakes. The website with additional tools was also incorrect. Several quiz/test questions wrong even though I selected the answer from the text in the book.

This is the required textbook for a paralegal class I am taking. In essence the information in the book is good but when you go to take the quizzes and tests you will get wrong answers marked incorrect even though your answer matched the book. The publisher provides answer keys for instructors and these are obviously riddled with mistakes. Be warned, you will need to point out the errors in the answer key to the grader in order to avoid having your grade marked down. Very frustrating.

Working great for my Legal Terminology class here in Cleveland at Tri C. It was a lot cheaper than purchasing the book at the college. Renting it is the way to go!

This wasn't the version I needed. It was also written in, whited out, and completely wrong. I felt like an idiot going to class with this and not making good grades because it wasn't the 2014 update. I also spent $60 on it and I'll be happy to send it back because I would like a refund. Very dissatisfied.

This is good for someone who is looking to foray into the paralegal world. Great and informative book for beginners.
