The jokes in this book are perfect for those times when the fish aren't biting or your friends are watching you cook burgers. With a little discretion the jokes are OK for most anyone. I had the wife in tears more than once. I'm back to buy a copy for my son-in-law.

95% of the jokes in this book are classic, very funny and tellable. Easy reading, one joke per page with a history behind some of them. Well worth the investment. A rabbi and a priest...

My father loves jokes, and so when he was recently hospitalized and not in the best of spirits, this book was the perfect pick-me-up. Sure, some of the jokes are not exactly appropriate for a daughter to give a father, but I was naive due to not being able to preview this online first. He still cracked up and had a good time reading through it. The only downside? Some of the jokes are really familiar/common ones, but still funny.

Very funny jokes. I got this for my grandpa who never stops telling the same jokes so it's time for a change xD

If you have not been on earth but a short time then this joke book may be right for you. I heard most all of these jokes years ago. Therefore, do not buy this book looking for something new.

I bought this as a gift for my husband and he read through it in one sitting. Some of the jokes we had heard before, but most were new. He liked how it also has side notes in it giving tips about how to tell some of the jokes best.

The introduction of this book had me laughing. Mr. Steinberg knows how to write, and how to write funny, and his taste in jokes are impeccable. I've heard versions of some of these during the past four decades, and it was delightful to read them in this book.

I bought this book in order to learn some jokes to tell my grandchildren. The book partly succeeded, as there are some good, clean jokes in the book. But there are also a bunch which are on the shady side, and definitely not part of the jokes I would want to tell children, or for that matter, adults as well. Maybe one-third of the jokes were suitable for re-telling.
