Customer Reviews

Collins Official Scrabble Words consists of two lists in a nearly 1200 hundred page tome which is over 2 inches thick but perhaps unfortunately in an approximately 6x9 in format. An A4 or letter size format seems warranted to make it more wieldy. The first 60% is the 2-9 letter list of all acceptable words. Second is the list of 10-15 letter words. Well over 99% of words played in scrabble are 8 letters or less and most 9 letter words are 8 letter words hooked by one letter on a subsequent play. There are no lists of short useful words or hooks or anagrams or other useful information. The book is published in the UK and is intended for players around the world who play Scrabble in

"international" English. It is the official list in almost every English Scrabble-playing country save 4, namely: Canada, Israel, Thailand and the U.S. If you play International Scrabble, you need an official word source for adjudication. This book is more than adequate for this purpose. It's also fun to browse the myriad oddities that are not found in the Official North American Scrabble Players Association's lexicon. CH VLY EUOUAE YGLAUNST are some of the stranger-looking (to Americans at least) words acceptable only in International English. The only other books I know of which are useful for International Scrabble outside of those published by Collins in the UK are sold directly from Bob's British Bible: Official Words, Hooks & Anagrams for International CSW12 Scrabble™ ® Play and
